9920 Watson Rd. Suite 115, St. Louis, MO 63126

Forney Plus Architecture is a Woman-Owned Business Enterprise. Jane Ann Forney, AIA leads the firm's practice. Under her guidance, the firm delivers architecture and design for custom homes, multifamily structures, and commercial buildings. Aside from its large-scale and mid-range projects, the firm also takes on additions and renovation work for residential clients.

The company's full-service approach allows it to stay with the project owner from program development through completion. The result of these design solutions are projects inspired by a wide variety of architectural styles. AT HOME Magazine and St. Louis Homes and Lifestyles featured many of the firm's projects from its 30+ years' worth of portfolio.
